

REVEREND DANIEL HENRY HAIGH, YORKSHIRE DIALS

Published in the Yorkshire Archaeological and Topographical Journal, London 1879

Roman Dial found at Dover

Many other early dials are also listed and described. Some of these are illustrated with sketches:

Dover (Roman origin)
Darlington, St. Cuthbert
Corhampton, Hampshire
Warnford, Hampshire
Iniscaltra, Ireland
Kilcummin, Ireland
Kilmalkedar, Ireland
Saul, Ireland
Bishopston, Sussex
Winchester, St. Michael
Cleobury Mortimer, Shropshire (portable)
Pittington, Durham
Bottesford, Lincolnshire

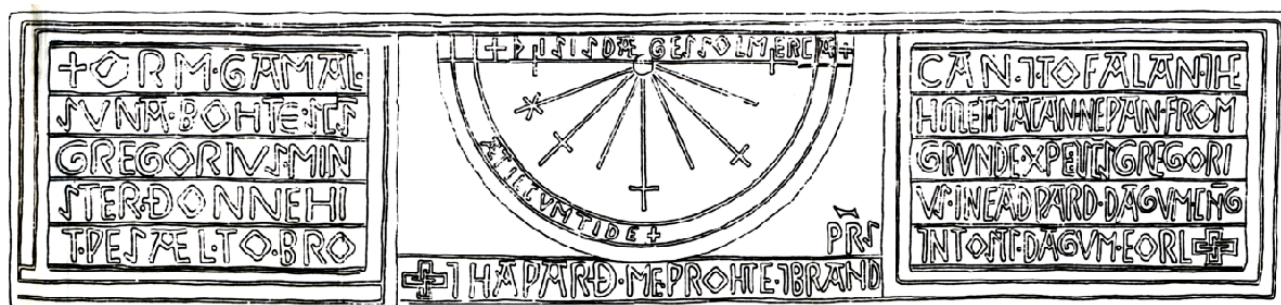

The article "YORKSHIRE DIALS" was published for Haigh by the Yorkshire Archæological and Topographical Journal. Booklets were also made from some reprints, having an extra four page article added: 'ADDITIONAL NOTE ON THE HEALAUGH TOMBSTONE.' By the Rev. DANIEL HENRY HAIGH.

The Article covers the following Yorkshire Dials:

Aldbrough	Kirkdale
Byland (Old)	Lockton
Edston	Marton-cum-Grafton
Emley moor	Sinnington
Kirkburn, (three Mass Dials)	Swillington
Kirkby Moorside	Weaverthorpe

Early Dial at Old Byland

The Early Saxon Dial with its Inscriptions at Kirkdale

Number of Pages: 95      Page Size: 9" x 5½"
Illustrations: Three full pages, one fold out page plus 17 in the text.