

T. GEOFFREY W. HENSLOW, VERSES FOR SUNDIALS, PART I.

London 1912

"Verses for Sundials" is a book with a thin card cover. This copy is inscribed by the author:

From The Author T. Geoffrey. W. Henslow.

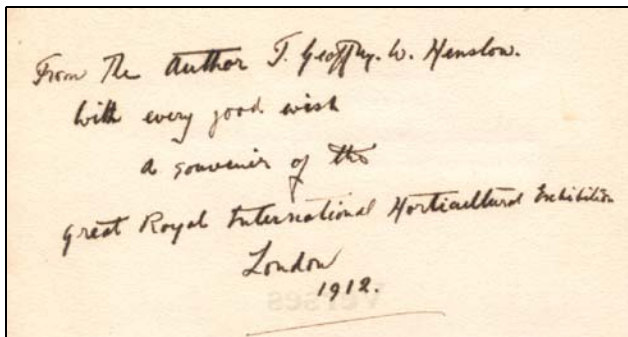

With every good wish

a souvenir of the

Great Royal International Horticultural Exhibition

London

1912.

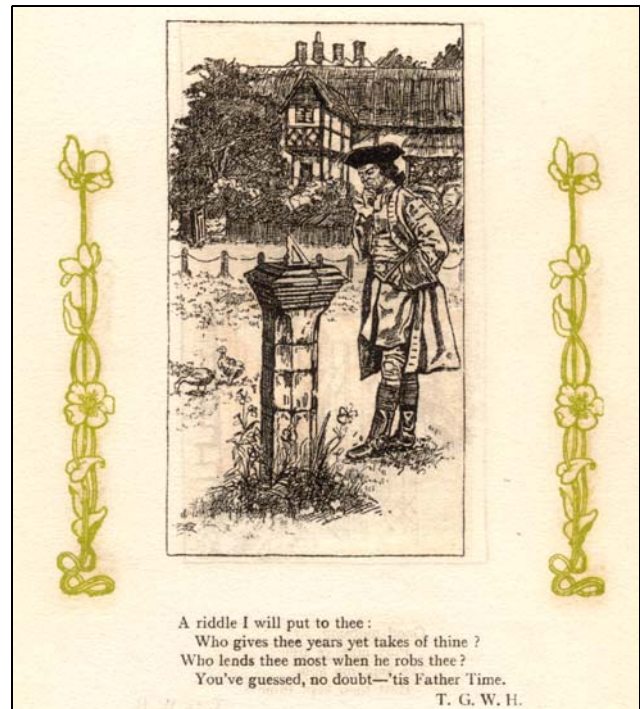

Inscription by the Author

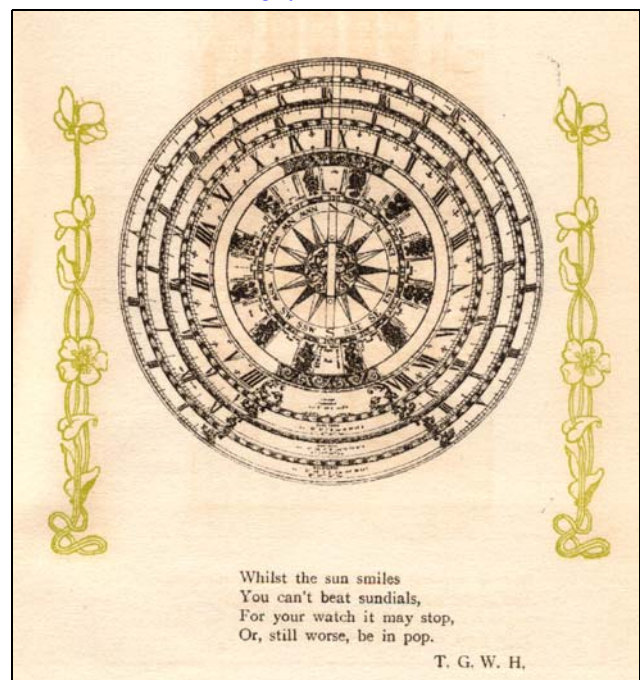

This book appears to be the forerunner of his better known work Ye SUNDIAL BOOKE published in 1914. It contains 101 of the sketches by Dorothy Hartley, each with a verse of Henslow's below it. All of these images are repeated in his later book with the exception of one; that is the Horizontal Dial plate illustrated opposite.

The book cover is printed in gold on a white card with an interesting creature at the centre with the inscription "ESSE QUAM VIDERI". The cover also has four bands, presumably for holding a ribbon.

It is not known if PART II was ever published.

A Page from the Book

The Last Page from the Book

